Congratulations
to
Dr. Rahim Karim

It is my pleasure and honour to extend my best wishes and congratulations to Dr. Rahim Karim on his installation as the new president and chief executive officer of the Canadian College of Naturopathic Medicine.

Dr. Karim is known for his leadership experience in the field of healthcare sector. Apart from being an accomplished clinician, he is also respected as an administrator, educator, and mentor. He has been involved in both public and private post-secondary educational institutions.

May you continue to serve well and impart your knowledge and wise counsel to the students or naturopathic medicine and to your colleagues at CCNM.

In wish you continued success in your new role.

Yours sincerely,
